

Privacy

All of your health records and information are strictly confidential. We require a written release of information to transfer your information to a third party.