

Functional Medicine Update

Functional Medicine

There is a tremendous new resource available to you for FREE. Jeff Bland, Ph.D. considered by many to be the father of functional medicine has produced this monthly audio show for the last 30 years. In the program he interviews the thought leaders and key researchers in medicine. Here is a partial list of interviews. Here is the link.

You will learn the latest on the microbiome, genetics, Alzheimer's research, MS, Neuropharmacology. As a physician my subscription to this service was over $200/year. Now yours for Free. Thank you Dr. Bland. I am sure you will find something that will be applicable to your own health.
